

Public Notice of Title VI Program Rights

Commercial Driving Academy LLC is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity on the grounds of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

Commercial Driving Academy LLC complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, related nondiscrimination authorities, and applicable U.S. Department of Transportation and Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration nondiscrimination requirements.

Commercial Driving Academy LLC's CDL training programs require applicants and students to meet all applicable federal and state commercial driver's license eligibility requirements, including English-language proficiency requirements necessary to complete CDL training, testing, and safe commercial motor vehicle operation. This requirement is applied uniformly to all applicants and students and is not based on race, color, national origin, or any other protected status.

Individuals who need assistance accessing information about Commercial Driving Academy LLC's programs, Title VI rights, complaint procedures, or nondiscrimination policies may contact the Title VI Coordinator below.
